to provide accesible, affordable and accountable quality health services to the citizens including the poorest households in remotest rural regions. The difficult areas with relatively unsatisfactory health indicators have been classified as special focus States to ensure greatest attention where needed. Himachal Pradesh is one of the 18 high focus States.

(c) and (d) Empowerment of local bodies within the framework of Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) is one of the core strategies under NRHM. The NRHM seeks to empower PRIs at all levels i.e. Gram Panchayat, Panchayat Samiti (Block) and Zilla Parishad (District) to take leadership in control and management of public health infrastructure at respective level. NRHM envisages transfer of funds, responsibility of planning, implementation and evaluation to PRIs. To facilitate local action, NRHM provides untied grants at all levels to be expended through the PRIs.
